PROP 20

Passage of prop 20 would allow some non-violent crimes, previously classified as misdemeanors, to be considered “wobblers”. This would allow prosecutors to charge the accused with either a misdemeanor or felony. It could also restrict early parole for the accused and require DNA collection for some misdemeanor offenses.

SO IF YOU...

VOTE YES?

A "yes" vote supports the ability for the classification of "wobblers", allowing prosecutors to charge people accused of, what was previously, a non-violent misdemeanors as either a misdemeanor or upgrade the charge to a felony. It could restrict early parole for the accused and require DNA collection for some misdemeanors.

SO IF YOU...

VOTE NO?

A "no" vote opposes allowing certain non-violent crimes to be considered as violent felonies. It opposes restricting early parole for the accused and opposes the mandatory collection of DNA for non-violent crimes.
